FOLLOWING ON FROM THEIR PRODIGIOUS 'SEDATIVE EP' AND THE ECO-ANTHEM "DANCING IN THE ASHES" AS WELL AS AN ACCLAIMED BBC INTRODUCES LIVE SESSION, ARTIO ARE SET TO RELEASE THE BRAND NEW SINGLE 'HIDE THEM FROM ME' ON MONOMYTH RECORDS.

Despite their young age, the Leeds based synth pop trio have collectively written and produced this track, once again displaying their talent for self sufficiency and variety. It continues the theme of self empowerment, turning the struggles of mental health into an anthem of encouragement for the masses. Lead singer Hol Brazill stated 'It's an incredibly personal observation on mental illness, that we hope can be a fight song for anyone trying to pull themselves out of a dark place. It's a track written to help obliterate any stigma surrounding mental health and put you on the path to reclaiming yourself. You are not defined by your illness, you are not defined by your circumstances, you are a living, breathing human being and so deserving of love. You are not alone'

"Hol's voice is frankly incredible. It's big, yes, but it has this tone that is captivating. And no it's not perfect, there are bits where it's cracking but I love those" (Local Sound Focus)
