

MARKETPLACE MISERY FEST

Following on from the immense success of their previous release, MARKETPLACE are set to return with their much anticipated follow up 'Misery Fest' on Monomyth Records. A true epic of a tune filled with stunning production elements that dip and fly through a sumptuous arrangement peppered with just the right amount of teenage angst'.

Oh, there's an evil wizard too!

MARKETPLACE are a five piece band from the north east of England comprising of Joel O'beirne (Vocals & Bass), Evie Rhodes (Vocals & Guitar), Jack Purcell (Guitar), Matthew Short (Keys), Ross Dixon (Drums). Formed in 2019 MARKETPLACE take influence from Hippo campus, Blavenon and Last dinosaurs to create their own Fun, Glistening indie sound.

'The keys to a great rock ballad is great playing, words that rip your heart out and a lead vocal THAT IS emotion. 'Misery Fest' has all three in spades. It also has an arrangement and production that is as near to damn perfect as you want; without, and this is crucial, losing the rawness'.
