

No Wukkas

AWKWARD POSITIONS

'No Wukkas are the latest act to sign to Leeds based Monomyth Records. The band describe themselves as a blend of indie psyche rock with math funk sensibilities. The musicianship and sheer quality of the songwriting mixed with their energetic live performances make the group stand out from the crowd and this bunch are definitely not your run of the mill stale pale males'.

'Awkward Positions' is the A side of the bands debut AA release featuring 'Look Above' on the flip side.

This Lo-Fi, indie-pop-math nugget leads the listener on an energetic journey through psych driven soundscapes reminiscent of early Zappa with a touch of Gizzard but firmly routed in the North of England. We hope that this four piece will be the perfect antidote to those incoming autumn blues and can't wait to share the rest of their amazing music with the world.
