Synth pop masters Artio have been busy in the lab perfecting the masterpiece that is 'BACKBONE'. Featuring six uncompromising and intricate tracks, this body of work takes the listener on a sonic journey through a landscape of lush synth pads, brittle trap like beats and deceptively complex vocal harmonies. The EP shows growth in terms of production and ambition, proving that Artio have a lot to say and are a force to be reckoned with.

TAKEN FROM THE EP, 'SCISSOR KILL' WAS GIVEN THE HONOUR OF BEING BBC INTRODUCING IN WEST YORKSHIRE'S TRACK OF THE WEEK, WITH A PLAY ON BBC 6 MUSIC THE FOLLOWING WEEK.

"AN EXCELLENT ALT POP TRACK, YOU CAN JUST HEAR THIS BEING MASSIVE"

"IT JUST NEEDS TO BE ALL OVER RADIO 1"
(EMILY PILBEAM BBC INTRODUCING)

Artio are in the middle of a UK tour supporting the release of 'BACKBONE'. The band are already booked for major festivals and have developed their live show into a 'must see' experience.

'BACKBONE' IS A TRULY PERSONAL AND HONEST PEICE OF WORK. IT ISN'T AFRAID TO TACKLE VITAL ISSUES SURROUNDING CLIMATE INJUSTICE, TOXIC RELATIONSHIPS AND MENTAL ILLNESS..
