

ARTIO

'If Hands Like Houses and Pvriss had a kid and made it listen to Bring Me The Horizon post-2015, the result would be Artio.'

INDEPENDENT MUSIC NEWS

Straight off the back of their electric summer single 'All Things End', Artio are back with a vengeance. Their third EP, 'Stand Alone and Do Your Dance' has got BBC Introducing 'obsessed' with it's second single, 'Hell's Door' and it's anthemic defiance.

"'STAND ALONE AND DO YOUR DANCE' DELVES INTO THE COMPLEXITY OF HUMAN RELATIONSHIPS AND HOW THEY AFFECT US DOWN TO OUR VERY SOULS. IT EXPLORES HOW THE PEOPLE AROUND US CHANGE US, AND HOW IT FEELS WHEN YOU DON'T LIKE WHO YOU'VE BECOME."

Artio have gained wide plaudits for their previous offerings and kicking things off this time round with the debut of 'Stand Alone and Do Your Dance' on Leeds Dance Radio, the trio are off to a roaring start. Add to this, acclaim received from BBC 6 music and the music press in general, you could definitely say that Artio are making waves in what has been a difficult time. Boldly releasing a 5 track EP amidst a global pandemic is a ballsy move for the young trio, but it just goes to show how determined Artio are to leave their mark and change up the industry.
