

LIZ MANN

Liz Mann is mostly known for her role as the front woman in the Leeds based Indie quartet Purple Thread. Her influences include Patti Smith, Blondie and Bowie to name but a few. Her energetic stage persona has won a loyal following of fans across the country. Liz is about to embark on a solo project embracing a synth based vintage style that's ripe for today's love lost streaming generation.

'Chocolate' is the first offering from this project and has a wonderfully of kilter wobbly sonic aesthetic that grows on you the more it's played. There's still elements of Liz's trademark glitter punk vocal treatment but it's tinged with beautiful harmonies that draw you in and demand closer inspection.

'Chocolate' Will be released through Monomyth Records on the 1st of July.
