LUKA is a solo artist based in London and Leeds UK. With a distinctive voice and an authentic quirkiness in terms of production and songwriting, LUKA is at the beginning of her musical journey and has already shown great potential with her widely acclaimed debut single 'Play Thing'.

LUKA says her second single 'Past The Point Of No Return' is a song about general mental health struggles. It explores experiences with anxiety and depression and trying to get past them in order to live life to the fullest. Also like existential fear of wanting your life to be important and to mean something. Fighting against your brain basically'.

'Past The Point Of No Return' has a deceptively rich sonic pallet coupled with a non traditional arrangement that twists and swirls and leaves the listener wanting more. There are hints of LUKA's trade mark synth undertones and just the right amount of cleverly contrived vocal harmonies to keep you on your toes. This is a truly beautiful sequel to 'Play Thing'.

'Having recently played to a sold out audience at the legendary Wardrobe in Leeds and with this second release due in December, Luka is starting to make a hauntingly beautiful impression on the music industry' (Monomyth Records).
